CRIME DASHES METHODISTS WHO DANCED

People's Temple Pastor Attacks Young Members, Who, He Says, Broke Vows.

"SHAME AND A SCANDAL."

Methodist churches have been greatly stirred up by a sensational attack by the Rev. Charles A. Crane of the People's Temple on the younger members of the church, who, on Friday evening, attended a dance given under the auspices of Boston University. The minister says that the young people broke their vows, and characterized their act as a "shame and scandal."

"Last Friday night," said Mr. Crane, "a dance was given which was attended by a large number of young people. These young people, who are members of the Methodist church, broke their vows, and characterized their act as a 'shame and scandal.'"

"It is not enough to say that there is no harm in attending dances, for those who unite with the Methodist church should keep the rules of that church and these rules forbid attending dances. The young people who attended the dance on Friday night broke their vows, and characterized their act as a 'shame and scandal.'"

MISS ELLA KIRMES, DRAMATIC SOPRANO.

Melrose girl, who is a schoolmate of Geraldine Farrar, and who commenced her musical education in Boston, is hailed as future prima donna.

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS

JACK MUNROE SHOWS HOW HE EXPECTS TO DEFEAT CHAMPION JEFFRIES AT 'FRISCO IN JUNE.

Jack Munroe Believes He Is Stronger Than Jeffries, Can Hit as Hard and Is Faster on His Feet. He, Therefore Figures He Has a Good Chance to Win.

CROSS COUNTERS AND A FEW JABS By the Timekeeper.

It's a case of all smiles for fight fans for the first time since "Duke" did you ask. Well, but big John L. is expected to fight Thursday, and wouldn't that be enough excitement to crowd into one day in the good old sporting Athens of the New World?

You bet, and some more. Promptly, at 1 o'clock there'll be something doing in the Boston Theater, that place made famous when the mighty old Spaniard of the prize ring was given a world championship belt and all the homage his fellow citizens could pay, after he licked poor Paddy Ryan of Troy, now dead, for the laurels.

It seems simply like old times to think of John L., the Roanoke Strong Boy, again back in the city of his birth after years of touring in every place on the globe worth touring in every place on the globe worth touring in.

When the prince of all champions had been laid with his glory for a few days in a pretty good shape again and looked somewhat better than he did when he was laid to rest in the city of the dead.

"He is the show," says he, to see all my old Boston friends, and I guess there's quite a few of 'em left, judging by the word I've received from many who have left for the city of the dead.

The big fellow will have a mighty good grip left in his massive right arm for those of the legions who strike in his colors, and he promises to give an all-round reception with a few peaches and his bludge of the exercise.

Indefinite points in the fight will be the champion's presentation, a few words, and then will come the exhibition of sport from all over New England into town and from all over the world into the city of the dead.

Some talk about the prize ring is as early as the prize ring, and for the boys who are fighting the show, and the boys who are fighting the show, and the boys who are fighting the show.

MUNROE TELLS WHY HE EXPECTS TO BEAT JEFFRIES

Jack Munroe, the miner, who still fights Champion Jeffries at 'Frisco June 17, is sure of that. Jeffries, Ark. He is leaving Chicago, he paid for the Boston American photographer, and shows by the remarkable photographs on this page how he expects to beat Jeffries, who is, the Chicago boxer, posed as Jeffries.

By Boston American Leased Wire. CHICAGO, April 25.—Jack Munroe is not a fighter. He is a man who is a fighter. He is a man who is a fighter. He is a man who is a fighter.

The big, quiet man, with his hair, different manner, has none of the braggado of which usually goes with a champion pugilist's reputation.

He talks quietly, he says little, and shows all, he does not think he knows it all. He is a man who is a fighter. He is a man who is a fighter. He is a man who is a fighter.
